

SUMMERDAY VALLEY

Situated in the northern area of the Park, Summerday Valley has it all. Great views, a 22 meter abseil, climbs ranging from 10 to 25 meters. The amazing rock at Summerday Valley has helped give the Grampians its unsurpassed reputation for climbing. Also well suited to large groups with a wide range of experience and levels.

DIRECTIONS

Meet at: Hollow Mountain carpark
(also found on Google Maps)
Estimated drive time from Halls Gap: 35-50minutes

OPTION 1 - Direct Route:

The most direct route is taking the Mt Zero Rd (gravel),

- Turn onto Mt Zero Rd, starting at Delley's Bridge, near the entrance of Halls Gap (100meters North of the YHA).
- Continue up the Mt Zero Rd for 37km, crossing the Roses Gap Rd at about 27km. The entrance to the car park is on the left and signposted.

OPTION 2 - Alternate Route:

The alternate route bypasses most of the gravel road and takes about 15-20minutes longer.

- Drive out of Halls Gap towards Stawell for approximately 2km's, turning left onto the Fyans Creek Rd.
- Continue for approximately 8km's and turn left onto Greenhole Rd.
- Continue for approximately 6kms passing Lake Lonsdale turning left at the signpost for Horsham onto Ledcourt Rd.
- Continue for 1km and turn right onto the Mt Drummond Rd, taking you to the Western Hwy.
- Turn right onto the Western Hwy towards Horsham and Dadswells Bridge.
- Continue for approximately 9.5 Km's past Dadswells Bridge and the Giant Koala turning left onto the Wonwondah-Dadswells Bridge Rd.
- Continue for 2.5km's and turn left onto Flat Rock Rd(gravel), continue to the Mt Zero Rd, 2.5km's.
- Turn right onto the Mt Zero Rd and continue for approximately 1km and the Hollow Mountain Car Park is on your left and signposted.

WHAT TO BRING

- Comfortable clothing that suits weather conditions, and wet weather wear if rain looks possible. (Consider that participants will be wearing harnesses and that short shorts, etc. may be uncomfortable and/or inappropriate).
- Sunscreen/hats and insect repellent.
- Comfortable footwear (runners are suitable).
- Fluid, snacks and/or lunch.
- Camera(s).
- A day-pack to carry your gear.
- An open and positive attitude.

CONTACT:

Mobile: 0407684831

Email: hanginoutearl@gmail.com

www.hanginout.com.au

